Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Delores Hammer, via her particular penchant for devising delectable desserts, has "sweetened" her image in the hearts and minds (and tummies) of the Janklow clan; and,

WHEREAS, Delores has endeared herself to South Dakota by creating some of the most aesthetically pleasing, mouth-watering masterpieces of culinary creativity in the history of the Milky Way galaxy; and,

WHEREAS, The month of April, 1983, marks an historical landmark in the life of Delores Hammer, for it is this spring that she ventures into her second half century of living; and,

WHEREAS, In the first half century, Hammer fans will remember that Delores had more than just fancy cakes in her oven. With husband Stanley serving as Assistant Chef, Delores cooked up five great kids: Bradley, Lori, Lisa, Connie, and Bryan--not a bad batch in the bunch; and,

WHEREAS, Now that Delores has reached the big 5-0, the best is yet to come. (The fifties are the best years of all, Delores. Everybody loves the 50's. I know I do. I grew up in them!) All eyes (and taste buds) are fixed and waiting, anxious to see what she comes up with next; and,

WHEREAS, Delores Hammer is a fine woman and one who I am fortunate to have as a friend. The entire Janklow family thinks she's the best thing since Betty Crocker, and we all wish her the best as she enters the wonderful world of the fifties.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 1983, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this thirty-first day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-three.
